

Schedule

Title	Description	Date	Time
			(English Sessions)
Developing phonemic awareness	This session will encourage early childhood educators to start their phonics journey by creating opportunities for children to use their listening and sound discrimination skills interactively and engagingly	20-Mar-21	11:00 AM
Leadership and management in early childhood education	This session will identify the difference between a leader and a manager and explore the importance of leading by example by modelling a high standard of practice, knowledge and care	20-Mar-21	6:00 PM
Managing children's behaviour in early childhood	The focus of this session will be to understand how young children learn and how to support positive behaviour	27-Mar-21	11:00 AM
STEM in early childhood	This session will consider how to promote opportunities for learning across the STEM subject areas in particular science and the cross curricular nature of STEM learning	27-Mar-21	6:00 PM
Learning through play: Encouraging imagination and creativity	This session will explore how learning through play supports children to develop across all the domains of development and gain skills to manage their emotions and try-out their ideas	3-Apr-21	11:00 AM
Making Maths Fun	This session will share practical ideas, games, stories, rhymes and activities for early mathematical development and explore how a mathematically rich environment can promote and support a deeper understanding of mathematical concepts.	3-Apr-21	6:00 PM
Developing parent partnerships	This session will reflect the research that has shown that it is what parents do, rather than who parents are, that is a vital factor in the success of a child's education.	10-Apr-21	11:00 AM
How to support children with additional needs	This session will explore what role early childhood educators have in early intervention and how to support children and their families.	10-Apr-21	1:00 PM
Supporting children's well-being	This session will explore emotional intelligence and how to support children's wellbeing. Delegates will be provided with ideas and given some practical strategies to help children to feel emotionally secure when returning to nursery and beyond.	17-Apr-21	11:00 AM
UAE child protection	Through looking at Wadeema's Law and how this changed the view of child protection in the UAE delegates will become familiar with the procedures in place in the UAE to protect children	17-Apr-21	6:00 PM
Observation, assessment, and planning	This session will briefly explore the fundamental elements of a curriculum and provide ideas and suggestions for a systemic observation, assessment and planning process	24-Apr-21	11:00 AM
Early Literacy	This introductory session will encourage early childhood educators to reflect on what 'literacy' looks like in their setting and how to support a literacy rich environment	24-Apr-21	11:00 AM